c.park@hfclaw.com

Caroline has extensive experience across the whole spectrum of family law work, particularly in relation to complex financial disputes arising on divorce and separation, disputes involving children and the drafting and negotiation of pre-nuptial and post-nuptial agreements.

Caroline joined Hughes Fowler Carruthers in 2008, rising rapidly to become the firm's first promotion to the partnership in over ten years. She joined from international law firm, Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer, where she was a tax lawyer. During her time at Freshfields, Caroline worked on a wide range of cross-border, commercial transactions, involving both corporate clients and major financial institutions.

Since joining Hughes Fowler Carruthers in 2008, Caroline has worked on a number of reported cases and has built up extensive experience across the whole spectrum of family law work, in particular in relation to complex financial disputes arising on divorce and separation, disputes involving children and the drafting and negotiation of pre-nuptial and post-nuptial agreements.

Clients have great confidence in Caroline's calm and thorough approach and describe her as determined, clever and focussed, combining this with genuine kindness and warmth.

Caroline has been consistently ranked in the leading legal directories for several years and is featured in the Spear's Family Law Index's 'Top Recommended Family Lawyers' list. Chambers UK 2022 highlights Caroline's experience in "sensitive cross-border financial proceedings involving high-value assets". The Guide praises her for her "huge amount of commercial knowledge" and as "an exceptional lawyer and a very smart litigator". Chambers UK 2021 described Caroline as an "exceptionally talented lawyer who really understands the commerciality of the case". The Guide further commended her as an "outstanding family lawyer with strong intellect" and for being "strategically sound and clinical while being kind-hearted to clients".

Caroline retains her ranking in Chambers HNW 2021. The Directory notes she is "extremely tough in negotiation and achieves results for her clients that others would not even think possible. Underestimate her at your peril, she is a tactician and extremely capable lawyer who is always on top of the facts". Chambers HNW further highlights Caroline as "an outstanding family lawyer. She is sensitive, empathetic and unfailingly prompt. She is extremely numerate and her background in tax law is a great help. She also has a deep understanding of pensions". Chambers HNW 2020 reconfirmed her ranking, highlighting her "wide-ranging litigation background in family law", commending her for being the "voice of reason in a lot of cases". The guide praises Caroline for being "an excellent negotiator" and "highly strategic," adding that "it is like she is playing chess; she is thinking of all angles and is several moves ahead."

The Legal 500 UK 2022 reconfirms Caroline's rating as a 'Leading Individual', praising her for being "one of the best lawyers of her generation". The Guide highlights that she is "supremely bright, super organised and calm and devout in the furthering of her client's best case" as well as "highly emotionally intelligent" noting "she can read a client, a judge or the other side to maximum effect". The Legal 500 UK 2021 noted she is "frequently engaged in the most complex, cross-jurisdictional divorce and financial remedy cases, as well as handling pre and post-nuptial agreements and contested children cases". The Guide praised Caroline as "outstanding - very strong, a tough but fair opponent and very pragmatic".

Her interests outside work include travel, hiking, food and wine and reading. Caroline has a first-class degree from Cambridge University and a Master's degree from the University of Chicago.
