Lauren provides specialist legal advice on all aspects of family law including divorce, financial arrangements on relationship breakdown, private law children matters and pre-nuptial, post-nuptial and cohabitation agreements.

Lauren is adept at dealing with complex and high net worth financial matters, the majority of which have an international angle. She has considerable experience in matters involving trust structures, family businesses and complex tax issues.

Lauren's practice also includes private law children disputes, including international relocation and living arrangements.

Lauren has a particular interest in EU law. She is a member of Resolution's International Committee and was a key contributor to the work of Resolution's Brexit Working Party.

Lauren guides clients with practical and intelligent advice. She is astute, thorough and determined to find a path through complicated situations to achieve solutions for her clients, whether through negotiation, litigation, mediation or arbitration.

Lauren joined Hughes Fowler Carruthers in 2015 after qualifying as a solicitor in 2013 and became a partner in September 2024.

Lauren studied at New College, University of Oxford, and qualified at the international law firm Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer as a dispute resolution solicitor before moving to family law. She is a member of Resolution and her interests outside work include Spanish language and culture and countryside walks.

An exceptionally intelligent lawyer, incredibly hardworking who builds excellent relationships with her clients
